

EMPTY YOURSELF TO ME

When I wake up in the morning
I wonder if You're there
My minds so full of questions
Do You even care
With all You know about me
Why do You call my name
I stumble and fall in spite of it all
You keep reachin' out sayin'

Chorus:

Empty yourself to Me
Empty all your past
Let go of those things
You thought were so wrong
And I'm gonna give you a brand new chance
Empty yourself to Me
Your troubles they are mine
Let go of your life, so
We may abide

I know that you are frightened
A smile can hide your pain
You sought the world for answers
Confusion still remains
The answers that I give you
Are very near your heart
So say with a voice that I am your choice, and
I'm gonna give you a brand new start
