

WHY?

Tell me why there is brokenness?

Tell me why there is emptiness?

Tell me why there is loneliness?

Tell me why?

I want to know why do people separate?

I want to know why do people learn to hate?

I want to know why do people cause such pain?

I want to know why?

Chorus:

The answer you seek is simple and true

You can search high and low, but it points back to you

You can close your eyes and run from the truth...

Tell me why some people have so much?

Tell me why some people don't have enough?

Tell me why some people have it so rough?

Tell me why?

I want to know why do people have to cry?

I want to know why do people cheat and lie?

I want to know why do people have to die?

I want to know why? (Chorus)

Tell me why I'm so confused today?

Tell me why I have to look this way?

Tell me why no one feels my pain?

Tell me why?

I want to know why in a crowd I'm alone?

I want to know why I get put down just for fun?

I want to know why am I all on my own?

Tell me why?
