          There will still be Love
          When the moon and stars disappear
          There will still be Love

Does not seek it's own way
Does not envy, does not boast
Is not proud in any way....(chorus)

Was every man she knew
Until she fell in love with Jesus
And started life a new....(chorus)
- 3. Love never takes delight in evil
That other people do
Love always shares the joy of those
Who want to live by the truth....(chorus)
- 4. There was a man who lived his life
In darkness from the truth
Till Jesus touched his eyes, his life
And made it all brand new....(chorus)

And hopes all things
Love will outlast anything 'cause in the end
Love never fails....(chorus)
